I have an hour's talk in store for you.
JULIUS CÆSAR.

THE author wishes to point out that since this volume went to press, the deaths have occurred of VISCOUNT NORTHCLIFFE, SIR LESLIE WARD, and Mr. RUTLAND BARRINGTON, to each of whom reference is made in certain of the following chapters.

September 1922.

AUTHOR'S NOTE

IT seems to be the general custom of present-day writers to preface their books with an explicit assurance that "all the characters and incidents in the following pages are entirely imaginary." In this book, however, none of the characters and none of the incidents are in any degree imaginary.
