The first part of the document discusses the early years of the nation, from the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776 to the end of the Revolutionary War in 1783. It covers the challenges of establishing a new government and the role of the Continental Congress. The second part of the document focuses on the period from 1783 to 1800, including the signing of the Constitution and the early years of the new government under George Washington. The third part of the document discusses the period from 1800 to 1820, including the presidencies of John Adams and James Madison, and the War of 1812. The fourth part of the document covers the period from 1820 to 1840, including the presidencies of James Monroe and James Q. Adams, and the beginning of the Industrial Revolution. The fifth part of the document discusses the period from 1840 to 1860, including the presidencies of John Tyler, James K. Polk, Zachary Taylor, and Millard Fillmore, and the growing tensions between the North and the South. The sixth part of the document covers the period from 1860 to 1877, including the presidencies of Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan, Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson, and Ulysses S. Grant, and the Civil War. The seventh part of the document discusses the period from 1877 to 1900, including the presidencies of Rutherford B. Hayes, James A. Garfield, Chester A. Arthur, Grover Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison, and William McKinley, and the Reconstruction era. The eighth part of the document covers the period from 1900 to 1917, including the presidencies of William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, and Woodrow Wilson, and the beginning of World War I. The ninth part of the document discusses the period from 1917 to 1945, including the presidencies of Woodrow Wilson, Warren G. Harding, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, and World War II. The tenth part of the document covers the period from 1945 to 1960, including the presidencies of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the beginning of the Cold War. The eleventh part of the document discusses the period from 1960 to 1980, including the presidencies of Dwight D. Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson, Richard Nixon, and Gerald R. Ford, and the Vietnam War. The twelfth part of the document covers the period from 1980 to 2000, including the presidencies of Gerald R. Ford, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, and George W. Bush, and the end of the Cold War. The thirteenth part of the document discusses the period from 2000 to 2017, including the presidencies of George W. Bush, Barack Obama, and Donald Trump, and the beginning of the 21st century. The fourteenth part of the document covers the period from 2017 to the present, including the presidency of Donald Trump and the ongoing challenges of the 21st century.
