THE harmonized intlections in the General Confession, now for the first time published, are the composition of Mr. Robert Janes, organist of Ely Cathedral, and have been in daily use since the year 1831.

The harmonics of the Preces, Versicles, and Litany, are very slightly different from those used in Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's, and other Cathedral Churches. An effort has been made to present them as far as possible in their ancient purity.

The Order of the Administration of the Holy Communion, with musical notation, as here arranged, is now for the first time printed. It has been in use in Ely Cathedral for some years past. This notation, and that of the General Confession, are copyright.

MINISTER.

[The Sentences.]

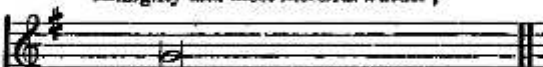

Dearly beloved brethren, . . . saying after me;

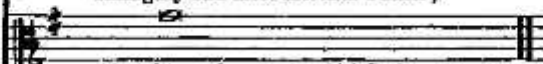

¶ *A general Confession to be said of the whole Congregation
after the Minister, all kneeling.*

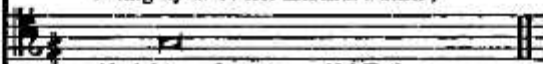

Almighty and most merciful Father;

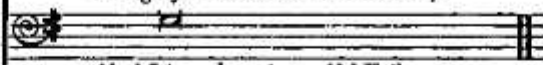

Almighty and most merciful Father;

Almighty and most merciful Father;

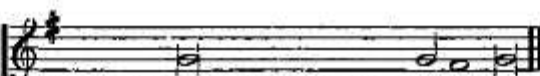

Almighty and most merciful Father;

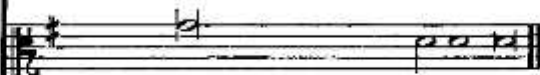

Almighty and most merciful Father;

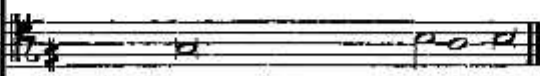

We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep.

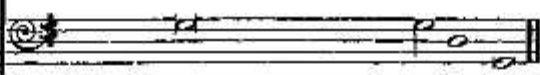

We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep.

We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep.

We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep.

We have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep.

We have followed too much the devices and desires
of our own hearts;

We have followed too much the devices and desires
of our own hearts;

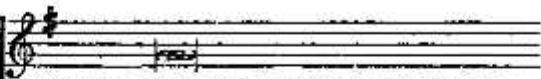

[The following seven clauses as above; each clause after the Minister.]

We have offended against thy holy laws;
We have left undone those things which we ought to
have done;
And we have done those things which we ought not to
have done;
And there is no health in us.
But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders.
Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults.
Restore thou them that are penitent;

According to thy promises declared unto mankind
in Christ Jesu our Lord.
