To
MARGARET ROOT FECHHEIMER

Dear Margaret: A book of poems should have almost as many dedications as titles, for the poet must always sing for some friend, whether the friend knows it or not. Therefore certain of these poems are frankly inscribed to the people whose high hearts inspired or received them; and certain others, even though uninscribed, will be claimed, no doubt, by those to whom they belong. If, in gathering them all together, I offer the book to you, it is in the hope of invoking for it your spirit of youth and joy.

To win that would be what mortals mean by immortality. May you live forever!
