Introduction

In one of his helpful volumes the Rev. Dr. J. R. Miller tells of a young lady who purchased a book and read a few pages, yet failed to become interested in it. But some months afterwards, he goes on to relate, she met the author, and a tender friendship sprang up, ripening into love and betrothal. Then the book was dull no longer. Every sentence had a charm for her heart. Love was the interpreter.

Seeing beauty in God's word is much conditioned in the same way. The Bible has infinite value in itself; but to reveal its richest treasures it needs love as an interpreter. To those who do not know Christ personally it may seem uninteresting; but to those who know and love him its every page becomes like a casket of jewels glowing with beauty and light; yes, even better, like a letter of love, quickening the heart-throbs and filling the soul with rapture and with fresh and holy resolve.

This little book aims to take only a treasure text, a divine love-word, here and there, and hold it in the light until at least a little of its beauty shall be seen. The object is to send the beholder to a fresh study and appreciation of all the jewels in the treasure-chamber of our King.
