P R E F A C E
TO THE
T H I R D E D I T I O N .

As the author entertains the highest opinion of Strathpeffer as a Sulphur Spa and Health-resort, and it having been again represented to him that a want is felt in the shape of a book on the place, since the disposal, a year ago, of the Second Edition of this work, he feels called upon to issue a Third Edition. In so doing, he is glad to have the opportunity of removing two erroneous impressions made on the public mind, by late writers on Spas, viz, the inaccessibility of Strathpeffer, and its imperfect arrangements—expressions true of the past perhaps, but most certainly inapplicable now. At the same time, he would draw special attention to the fact, that the good to be derived from the Spa is not confined more to the summer than to the winter months.

DURRANT HOUSE,
CHESTERFIELD, July, 1879.

TO THE

THE present little work, intended specially for strangers visiting Strathpeffer, is an expansion of a pamphlet "On the Strathpeffer Spa," published for the medical profession some time ago, by the author. In this, he has attempted to render as intelligible as possible to the non-medical mind the subject of the Waters. In describing the Walks and Drives he has endeavoured to be concise, leaving his readers rather to go and see for themselves. In this latter part of the work, he begs to acknowledge aid mainly from the excellent "Guide to the Highlands," of the Messrs. Anderson, of Inverness.
