CHAPTER I

A SCOUT FROM CAPE FORBES

"If the season is going to be like this, we shall all wish we had left New York in April!"

"This is just a simmer! We'll be broiled and stewed before the summer is over."

"It is still spring, according to the calendar, but the calendar must be getting foolish!"

"Still beautiful May, but I'd like to take a bite out of the North Pole, just the same."

It really was an unseasonably hot night in the City of New York, and the atmosphere seemed hotter than it really was because the previous days had been cool.

Notwithstanding the comments recorded above, the room where the four boys sat was fairly comfortable. This was the clubroom of the Black Bear Patrol, Boy Scouts of America.

The room was at the top of the house, with
