EDITOR'S PREFACE.

THOMAS WHYTEHEAD was born at Thormanby, in the North Riding of the County of York, on St. Andrew's Day 1815, and died in his twenty-eighth year at Waimate, Bay of Islands, New Zealand, on the Third Sunday in Lent, 19th of March 1843. He was the youngest son of the Rev. Henry Robert Whytchhead, B. A., and of Hannah Diana, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Bowman, M. A., Rector of Crayke, in the County of Durham, and Prebendary of Lincoln. From the death of his father, which took place in his third year, to his removal to Beverley Grammar School before he had completed his ninth, he remained with three brothers and five sisters under the care of his mother at York; his education meanwhile being conducted by a valued instructress, who had charge of the younger members of the family. At Beverley he continued until the close of the year 1830, first under the Rev. G. P. Richards, M.A., Senior Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and afterwards under the Rev. T. S. Warren, M.A. The rest of his preparation for the University was carried on by his brother the Rev. Robert Whytehead. In October 1833, he came into residence as Pensioner at St. John's College, Cambridge; and took the degrees of B. A. in 1837, and M. A. in 1840. During his academical course he obtained College Prizes for Declamation, Latin Verse, Reading the Lessons in Chapel, and place in the Examination Classes; also the University Honours of the
