CHAPTER I

“WHAT’S TRINGANU?”

“I don’t care what your orders are. Cap’n Hollinger sent for me, and I’m going aboard or I’ll know the reason why!”

“Well, ain’t you just heard the reason why, son? He ain’t here, and orders is orders. There ain’t no one comin’ aboard the Seamew, that’s all. Nothin’ was said about any Mart Judson, kid.”

“Then I guess your ears need tuning up. I’m comin’ aboard, see?”

“Ye’ll go overboard then. Well, if the kid ain’t goin’ to walk right up to me! Look out there, kid — get off that gangplank in a hurry!”

Trouble was in the air. At the rail of the trim yacht Seamew lounged Swanson, her burly first officer, pipe in mouth. He was evidently angry, for his heavy features were dark and lowering
