PREFACE.

THE first part of this book, "Summer in the Hebrides," was written and delivered as a musical lecture, about a month after we left Oronsay, in November, 1886. It is now printed for my friends, but it has been altered to some extent by the omission of many of the songs and lighter portions.

What follows has been added to illustrate and commemorate other features of our island life, and the poetry is introduced as a remembrance of some who contributed to make that life pleasant.

To my husband I owe the notes entitled "The Islands in History."

FRANCES MURRAY.
