POEMS.

ON THE RIVER.

BETWEEN green fields and wooded heights
The river stretched at ease ;

The starry points, the dazzling lights
Struck from it by the breeze ;

The wavering smoke, that floats, that trails,
The rippling flags that fly,
The glistening prows, the sunny sails
Of boats that pass me by ;

The gulls that flying here and there
Now darken and now gleam ;
The clouds that melt upon the air,
Like snow on some slow stream ;
