INTRODUCTION.

In presenting this pamphlet to the English Public, I have no apology to make, because in the first place it bears its own credentials. Secondly, I have caused it to be published because I have been commanded to do so, and bow in meekness and in obedience to that authority. It is a source of great joy to me, that I, the least of all, have been so much blessed as to be a chosen instrument to hold in my possession the originals of "the Flying Roll," and to be thus privileged, unworthy as I am, to offer them to the Gentile Churches in England, first: that the lost tribes of the house of Israel may hear the voice of their shepherd, gather themselves together, and flee to the city. The words of "the Flying Roll" are Spirit and life; so the natural man will not receive them, they will appear foolishness unto him, being only spiritually discerned. But the children of Abraham will recognise the voice and rejoice: while the seed of Abraham, all lovers of truth, and true followers of our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, will diligently search the Scriptures and compare "the words" with the law and the Testimony. These "Extracts from the Flying Roll" are intended for all sects and denominations, without exception. Considering the present apostate state of Christendom, it is reasonable to expect that this first pamphlet containing the first sermon, with the other eleven pamphlets (twelve sermons in all) which will follow in due time, will meet with more or less opposition; but with this I have nothing to do. Every man must answer for himself, before the judgment-seat of Christ. The great apostasy is increasing and is waxing stronger and stronger until: "The Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout." This message of the "Flying Roll," like all former visitations, will prove a "savour of life unto life" to some, and a "savour of death unto death" unto others. The six waterpots of stone, containing three firkins apiece, will only be filled to the brim with water; the wine of the kingdom will follow, but the "best wine" will be reserved unto the last. We advise all who read these "Extracts" not to stop at first principles, but to follow on to the end. If the languishing soul is quickened, it is "according to God's word." If the hearts of Christ's disciples "burn within them," it is while "He talks with them by the way, and opens to them the Scriptures," and utters things in their hearing which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. Some perhaps may, like Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, after hearing three or four leaves read, "cut it with a penknife" and "cast it into the fire;" but this can never consume it. The Spirit who caused the former roll to be written, has now caused the latter to be written. The Spirit who asked Zechariah, "What seest thou?" and to which he answered: "I see a Flying Roll," also caused an angel to fly in the midst of heaven, "having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice: Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come." Many will stumble at the words contained in "the Flying Roll," as many have already stumbled at the Scriptures in trying to reconcile the words spoken to the shepherds, around whom the glory of the Lord shone, saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men," with the words of Jesus: "Think not that I am come to send peace on the earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword." The words of this Roll, which have been closed up and sealed till the time of the end, are now revealed to mankind, because the time for the fulfilment of "all things" is come. "Many shall be purified and made white and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand."

These "Extracts" have been compiled into sermons for the Gentile churches, including, without exception, all sects and denominations in Christendom, but are specially addressed to the children of Abraham, or the lost tribes scattered among them, that they may know that we are now in the third and last watch. That they may know that the Stem from the Root has come, ready to bear the branches. That they may know that the Female Immortal Spirit, "Jerusalem above," has descended upon the mortal woman, and that consequently the Temple is open for the cleansing, the flaming sword removed, and the door to the tree of life is open. "The fulness" is set in. It was also necessary to arrange "the Flying Roll" into sermons for the benefit of the true Gentile believers and followers of Christ, that they may seek the highest mansions in the "Incorruptible Bride" in the heavenlies, albeit the deeper mysteries of the life of the body in the "Immortal Bride," which only belongs to the Sealed of the Holy City, the 144,000, remains hid from their eyes. By arranging "the Flying Roll" into a series of sermons, written in so much simplicity, many who are to-day "afar off, without hope and without God in the world," may learn that God is not a hard Master, but a God of love, having no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but now in an especial manner calls upon them to take the waters of life freely and live. I may add in conclusion that although the "originals" are in my safe keeping, having recently received them from Jerusalem, I have not added to, or taken away one word from them. I have simply caused them to be copied word for word and have handed them to the publishers. Neither did I compile them into their present form of "Extracts." As I have received them, so I now hand them to the English Public.
