ADA'S PET LAMB.

DA was a good, merry-hearted, happy little girl, loved by all who knew her, and very dear to her mother's heart. She loved to run in the meadows and woods, and pick the beautiful flowers, or wander in the lanes with her pretty pet lamb trotting at her heels. Ada and her pretty pet might often be seen rolling together upon the grass; and when the days were warm and fine, and her mother could spare her, she would take her doll and cart, and followed by "Curly," as she called her pet, would pass the time pleasantly in the woods beneath the green leaves, or sitting by the brink of some tiny brook. Happy Ada! you shall hear her song to her pet lamb.
