ADVERTISEMENT.

As a collection of Poor Law Cases in an abridged form, and in a separate volume, has been found useful, if not indispensable, to those practically engaged in the administration of this part of the law, this fourth volume of the series has been prepared in continuation of the volumes of Mr. Lumley, and Mr. Archbold. The same plan with which the Profession and Poor Law Officers are familiar has been followed in the publication of the present volume, and the Cases decided up to the close of the year 1863 have been included.

JAMES PATERSON.
