LECTURE I

THE PROBLEM OF A PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

SECTION	PAGE
I THE NEED OF ANALYSIS . . . . .	1
A. Official Christianity does not study the experience as such — B. Science only describes it — C. Among philosophers lack of agreement forces a new analysis.
II DEFINITION OF TERMS . . . . .	4
A. There is a consciousness of religion — — B. Our problem is with the form or concept — C. Experience — (1) Experience is something which is in consciousness and not completely controlled — (2) First question is whether religion can be focal in consciousness — (3) And whether it is completely controllable by man — D. Validity — (1) It is a question of a true indication of the source of the experience — (2) Question first the existence of an indication as to source — (3) Second question is of the truth of this indication.
III THE POSSIBLE RANGE OF THE EXPERIENCE . . . . .	20
A. As to objective detail — (1) Is there detail, and how much may be true — (2)
