"Sir, I always said the Booksellers were a generous set of men. . . . The fact is, not that they have paid me too little, but that I have written too much."

I dedicate this book to my dear Granddaughter

DOROTHIE DANIELS,

because she says I must do so, and her must is equal to a Queen's command. She tells me frankly that she does not care a bit for musty old booksellers of centuries ago; but then, she is very good to one old bookseller of to-day, and so it comes to pass that I send her this book, on my seventy-eighth birthday, with my love.
