New York, April 3, 1907.

Miss Julie C. Gauthier,
St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Miss Gauthier:--

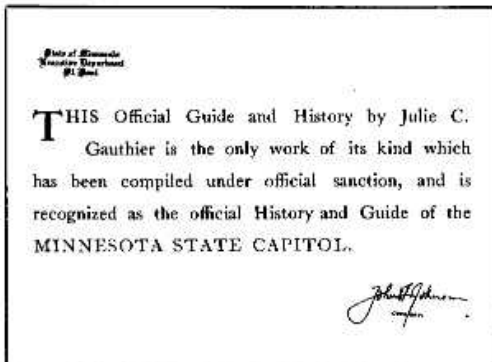

I have read the manuscript of your "Guide & History" of the Minnesota State Capitol and believe that it will be of great interest to those visiting the building.

I cordially recommend it.

Yours very truly,

Architect.

St. Paul, Minn., April 5, 1907.

Miss Julie C. Gauthier,
St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Madam:--

I have carefully read the manuscript of your Official Guide and History of the Minnesota State Capitol, and have also seen most of the illustrations which you purpose to use in it, all of which meet my approval. I think you have produced a very satisfactory work, and one that, for some time, we have been desirous of furnishing to the public.

For the Board of State Capitol Commissioners.

Vice President.

GILDED CAPITALS

INTO the beautiful Corinthian capitals which surmount the forty-four marble columns of the second floor, the architect has introduced a rosette which is a conventionalization of the moccasin plant—the recognized flower of the State of Minnesota.
