LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, June 5, 1911.

Sir: In partial compliance with the Senate resolution of May 25, 1910, I beg to transmit herewith a report showing the results of a study of the family budgets of typical cotton-mill workers.

This report has just been completed, and is the sixteenth section of the larger report on the investigation carried on in accordance with the act of Congress approved January 29, 1907, which provided "That the Secretary of Commerce and Labor be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to investigate and report on the industrial, social, moral, educational, and physical condition of woman and child workers in the United States wherever employed, with special reference to their age, hours of labor, term of employment, health, illiteracy, sanitary and other conditions surrounding their occupation, and the means employed for the protection of their health, persons, and morals."

The remaining parts of the general report are being completed as rapidly as possible and will each be transmitted at the earliest practicable moment.

Respectfully,

Benj. S. Cable, Acting Secretary.

Hon. James S. Sherman, President of the Senate, Washington, D. O.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR,
BUREAU OF LABOR,
Washington, June 5, 1911.

Sir: I beg to transmit herewith Volume XVI of the report on woman and child wage-earners in the United States, which relates to the family budgets of typical cotton-mill workers. This is the sixteenth section of the report of the general investigation into the condition of woman and child wage-earners in the United States, carried on in compliance with the act of Congress approved January 29, 1907.

This volume of the report is the work of Special Agents Wood F. Worcester and Daisy Worthington Worcester. The work has been carried on under the direction and immediate supervision of Chas. H. Verrill.

I am, very respectfully,

CHAS. P. NEILL, Commissioner.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C.
