H Y M N

I.

HOW glorious is the morning sun,
When forth in bright array
He comes his gladdening course to run,
Converting night to day.

The mist that hung the valley o'er
Is up the mountain rolled,
While flood and forest, sea and shore
Are radiant all with gold.

E'en so the world's Redeemer Lord,
The Sun of righteousness,
Pours joyous, healing rays abroad,
The heart of man to bless.

Sin's earth born clouds are rolled away
By his eternal might,
And they whose souls in darkness lay,
Behold a wondrous light.

Malachi, iv.

HYMN

II.

O CHRIST, with each returning morn
Thine image to our heart be borne ;
And may we ever clearly see
Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee.

All hallowed be our walk this day ;
May meekness form our early ray,
And faithful love our noontide light,
And hope our sunset calm and bright.

May grace each idle thought control,
And sanctify our wayward soul ;
May guile depart, and malice cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

Our daily course, O Jesu, bless,
Make plain the way of holiness ;
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And cheer at last our journey's end.

III.

A WAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

In converse shew thyself sincere,
In conscience be as noonday clear ;
Think how the Lord thy God surveys
Thine outward works, and inward ways.

Fulfilled by Christ with light divine,
Let thine own light all brightly shine ;
Reflect the Saviour's holy rays
In deeds of love, and songs of praise.

O render thanks, mine inmost heart,
With angel minstrels bear thy part ;
Uplift thy voice, and with them sing,
All glory to the heavenly King.
