CONSTITUTIONNAME AND OBJECT.

SECTION 1. This Society shall be known as the COLUMBUS HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

SEC. 2. The object for which it is organized is the advancement of horticultural knowledge.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 3. Any person may become a member of the Society by the payment of one dollar. Wives and daughters of members shall be members without the payment of any fee. Male members shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents, in advance, which shall be for the year ending with the next succeeding annual meeting; and no member shall have the right to vote, or other privileges of membership of the Society so long as such annual fee shall remain unpaid. Any lady resident in Franklin County may become a member without any fee.

SEC. 4. Any person may become a life member of the Society upon payment of ten (10) dollars, which shall be in lieu of all assessments or annual dues; and all persons who have been members for twenty or more years and have paid their regular dues, shall be life members.

SEC. 5. Any person distinguished in horticulture, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, may be elected an honorary member of the Society by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular meeting. Honorary members shall not have the right to vote nor incur any of the liabilities of members, but they shall be admitted to all meetings and exhibitions of the Society.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 6. The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and an Executive Committee of three members, all of whom shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting in December, and shall serve until their successors are elected.

SEC. 7. The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Executive Committee. In the absence of both, a President pro tem. shall be appointed.

SEC. 8. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Society, edit the same for publication, prepare a suitable program for each regular meeting, and attend to all necessary correspondence. He shall also collect all moneys due to Society for membership, annual fees and assessments, and pay over the same to the Treasurer; and shall receive as a remuneration for his service five dollars ($5.00) for each meeting.

SEC. 9. The Treasurer shall receive from the Secretary all moneys and funds belonging to the Society, and shall be the custodian of all bonds, stocks and securities belonging to the Society, and shall pay out and transfer the same only on the order of the Society, certified by the President and Secretary; and he shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements, and report it to the annual meeting; and shall give such bonds as the Executive Committee may require.

SEC. 10. The Executive Committee, including the President and Secretary ex officio, shall have control of all exhibitions, and have a general supervision of all matters pertaining to the welfare of the Society. It shall have power to call special meetings whenever, in its judgment, it shall be necessary.

SEC. 11. The chairmen of the standing committees shall be elected at the annual meeting, and such chairmen shall have the power to appoint the other members of their respective committees.

SEC. 12. The following standing committees shall be elected:

1. On Botany.
2. On Vegetable Pathology.
3. On Entomology.
4. On Meteorology.
