TO THE PARENT.

The object of this series is to assist girls to occupy themselves, and to aid the parent in finding amusement and employment for them, by explaining to them the nature of various operations of a more or less mechanical nature, which they can safely and properly perform with the assistance of the instructions here given.

Many of the readers of the books will perhaps actually undertake some of the operations here described, and so reduce the instructions to practice. Others will not do this; but the author hopes that these also may derive pleasure and advantage from the perusal of the books, through the knowledge which they may acquire from them of the properties of various substances in common use, and the principles involved in many ordinary processes such as their years and their state of mental development enable them to comprehend and appreciate, and which the incidents narrated in the several volumes, and the conversations accompanying them, are intended to elucidate and explain.
