INTRODUCTORY NOTE

I HAVE CONSENTED to the publication of these lectures at the request of many people who heard them, and especially of the members of the Men's Bible Class of St. Paul's Church, Chattanooga, for whom the lectures on the Prayer Book were written.

It is thought that the information presented in this brief and popular form may prove useful to persons enquiring about the Church, and who may in this way be led on to wider and fuller investigation.

As the lectures were delivered at various times, and to different congregations, they necessarily involve some repetitions; but for the uninstructed reader this may be an advantage; and therefore they are allowed to stand as they were originally prepared.

THOMAS F. GAILOR,

TO
THE VERY REV. JAMES CRAIK MORRIS, M.A.,
