TO LADY HILL.

---

MY DEAR LADY HILL,

I venture to inscribe this little volume to you, as a very tiny memorial of the friendship that has already existed between our families for more than three generations, and in grateful remembrance of many kindnesses received at your hands. I can only hope your warm heart will in this instance (as it has always hitherto done) magnify the offering, and take the will for the deed. I know there is an especially warm corner in it for the children of your old friends "The Hoods."

Yours very affectionately,

FRANCES FREELING BRODERIP.
