A few playful breathings of fancy,
A few Legends, imperfectly told,
But the memories of beautiful childhood
Are always more precious than gold.

The years of the shadowy Future,
Will hail these mementoes again,
And the Child of Loretto will treasure
The simple, yet love-hallowed strain,

That will call back her thoughts to the "Evenings,"
The Friends who were circling her there,
The sweet, kindly words of approval,
The gentle and vigilant care,

That earnestly, ceaselessly, ever
Was guiding, with motherly hand,
The heart of the Child of Loretto
To rest in the Heavenly Land.
