Foreword

We present this volume of "The Spectrum" to the sons and daughters of North Western College, and to her many friends, with the hope that it may serve to keep fresh in memory the service that was rendered by our Alma Mater in the Great War. Ours has been a college that was born in war time, in the days of the Civil War. In the great world crisis she steadfastly upheld the great principles of democracy. It has been our aim to make a permanent record of her service. How well we have accomplished our task may be found in the pages that follow. If this book serves in any degree, to keep alive a devotion to the cause of a striving and progressing humanity, then its mission is fulfilled. For whatever we might say will not be remembered but the service of the sons and daughters of our Alma Mater shall live forever. Let us then strive forward in that spirit, impelled always by the motive that actuated them to offer themselves to America and to the World.
