The Glory of the Father and the Son . . .	I

JOHN xvii. 1, 2.—"These words spake Jesus, and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee: as Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him."

Eternal Life—its Source and its Essence . . .	22

JOHN xvii. 3.—"And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent."

The Finished Work and its Reward . . . . .	40

JOHN xvii. 4, 5.—"I have glorified Thee on the earth: I have finished the work which Thou gavest Me to do. And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was."

The Father's Gift to the Son . . . . .	59
---	----

JOHN xvii. 5—8.—"And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was. I have manifested Thy name unto the men which Thou gavest Me out of the world: Thine they were, and thou gavest them Me; and they have kept Thy Word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever Thou hast given Me are of Thee. For I have given unto them the words which Thou gavest Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from Thee, and they have believed that Thou didst send Me."

The Mission and Consecration of the Disciples 165

JOHN xvii. 17—19.—“Sanctify them through Thy truth: Thy Word is truth. As Thou hast sent Me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.”

The Union of the Disciples . . . . . 184

JOHN xvii. 20—23.—“Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on Me through their word: that they all may be one; as Thou Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me. And the glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them; that they may be one, even as We are one: I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that Thou hast sent Me, and hast loved them, as Thou hast loved Me.”

With Christ, Beholding His Glory . . . . . 204

JOHN xvii. 24—26.—“Father, I will that they also, whom Thou hast given Me, be with Me where I am; that they may behold My glory, which Thou hast given Me: for Thou lovedst Me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world hath not known Thee: but I have known Thee, and these have known that Thou hast sent Me. And I have declared unto them Thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith Thou hast loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

THE GLORY OF THE FATHER AND THE SON.

"These words spake Jesus, and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee: as Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him."—JOHN viii. 1, 2.

THE prayer which is commonly called "The Lord's Prayer" is less entitled to the designation than that contained in this chapter. The "Paternoster" is, indeed, His, in so far as He is its author; but not His by His use of it. It was not a prayer which He could breathe; for some of its petitions obviously do not become the lips of One who was holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from sinners. Beautiful and comprehensive as it is, and suited as it is to our state and condition, it is only a form, not to be rigidly observed, but to indicate generally the order and manner of our petitions, given for the guidance
