MARY FRANCIS CLARE

THE LIFE OF FATHER
MATHEW, THE PEOPLE'S SOGGARTH AROON

NEW PRAYER BOOK,
ST. PATRICK'S MANUAL;

Imperial 32mo., 700 pp. beautifully illustrated, price 3s.; cloth
4s. 6d., richly gilt cover and edges.

More expensive bindings can be had to order.

THIS Prayer Book is honoured with the Imprimatur of the Right Rev. Dr. Moriarty. It has been compiled, at the urgent request of an American publisher, by Sister Mary Francis Clare, and is now republished here. The American publisher says: "This Prayer Book supplies a want which has been long felt by the Catholic community. It has been compiled by one whose fame is world-wide, though cloistered in the shades of Kenmare. Much original matter has been added, and the work is presented as a devotional manual that will, from its completeness and comprehensiveness, take the place of the many Manuals which, though carefully compiled and edited, still lack many of the features that at the present day should be comprised in a complete Prayer Book."

This work contains the Epistles and Gospels for each Sunday and Holiday throughout the year.

The Edition just published can be ordered of all Booksellers, or from the Convent of Poor Clares, Kenmare, County Kerry.

N.B.—A very clear and large type has been used throughout, and the volume is got out in the highest style of typography, by the well-known firm of O'Toole & Son. It is certainly the most elegant Prayer Book out, and the cheapest for its size and illustrations.
