COMPILER'S NOTE.

The authorship of all direct quotations, when known, is given. Some of these selections bear no name, as their origin is not certain. Many others, for the sake of brevity, present in a condensed form the essential features of an author's illustration, though not an exact quotation.

These are only a few of a pastor's jottings during a score of years, penned with no thought of publication, but simply for his own use in Church and Seminary work. An unexpected levy has been made upon them by vigilant publishers, who are sparing no expense in perfecting the department of Homiletical Literature. This compilation, though complete in itself, will be followed at intervals by other fuller and more varied volumes of helpful brevities, adapted to the needs of all Christian Workers whose time and purse and library are limited.
