THE "Month of the Holy Angels" deserves a place among our little publications for every month in the year. Devotion to these angelic spirits, as our holy guide says, is a mark of high predestination, and I wish to propose it to our faithful readers in an uninterrupted form, which enables me to show the doctrine of the Church, and the various practices of piety, in honour of the holy angels.

The beautiful book on devotion to the nine choirs of angels, by M. Henri-Marie Boudon,* which is far too little known, has served me for guide, and I have followed it literally step by step.

* Dévotion aux Neufs Chœurs des Anges, par M. Henri-Marie Boudon.

The examples and edifying anecdotes are principally borrowed from the "Bollandists," and taken from a compilation, very well arranged, by a former Vicar-general of Evreux.
