PREFACE.

THIS selection of prayers, from the most unexceptionable sources and authorities, has been attempted with a view to promote rational and unaffected devotion, and to assist heads of families and others with a ready and concise form for daily use.

Being commanded by our blessed Lord (Matt. vi. 7.) "not to use vain repetitions," nor to "think we shall be heard for our much speaking;" the short and energetic prayers and collects of our Church, and of eminent divines and others, namely, Bishop Andrews, Jeremy Taylor, Wilson, and Becon, Dr. Johnson, Nelson, Hele, &c., preceded by appropriate passages from the Psalms and Scriptures, have been chosen as best adapted to awaken attention, affect the heart, and cherish a sound and practical religious spirit, in members of families whose necessary duties and avocations only admit of their devoting a very limited portion of their time to the purposes of holy meditation and family prayer.
