PART I.—ACADEMIC ORGANIZATION.

I.—GOVERNMENT.

1. The United States Naval Academy shall be under the direct care and supervision of the Secretary of the Navy.

2. A line-officer of the Navy, of a rank not below that of Captain, shall be assigned by the Secretary of the Navy as Superintendent of the Naval Academy.

3. He shall be charged with the general superintendence and government of the Academy, and all Officers, Professors, Instructors and Cadets shall be under his command. He shall have charge of the grounds, buildings, vessels, and other public property, in use or belonging to the Academy. He shall have the power to appoint or remove all persons employed at the Academy, except those for whose employment or discharge special provision may be made by the laws, or regulations for the government of the Navy, or of the Academy.

4. At the end of each Academic month, he shall send a report of the marks and standing in each branch, and the number of demerits of each Cadet, to his parent or guardian; and a report of the relative standing of the Cadets in the various branches, and the number of demerits, to the Secretary of the Navy.

5. At the end of the first term, he shall transmit to the Secretary of the Navy the reports of the relative standing and demerits for the term, and the report of deficiencies, with the recommendations of the Academic Board, and he shall give a warning to Cadets whose averages in any uncompleted branch falls below 2.50, stating that their progress is unsatisfactory.

6. At the end of each Academic year, he shall cause the merit-roll of each class, for the year, to be made out, and the merit-roll of the graduating class for the course. He shall transmit to the Secretary of the Navy a copy of the graduating merit-roll, the reports of the relative standing of the Cadets in the three lower classes; and a report of deficiencies, similar to that sent at the end of the first term.

7. At the end of each term, he shall send a report of the marks and standing in each completed branch, and the number of demerits of each Cadet, to his parent or guardian, with a statement as to the final disposition of his case, if found deficient in any branch.

8. Officers of the Navy, on the application of the Superintendent, will be assigned to duty at the Academy by the Secretary of the Navy, as far as may be necessary to complete its organization.

9. All persons employed at the Academy shall be subject to these regulations.

10. No person connected with the Academy shall, unless authorized by the Secretary of the Navy, give any certificate, sign any paper, or take any action whatever, in relation to a decision of the Secretary of the Navy, or of the Academic Board, concerning any person who is, or who may have been, connected with the Academy, and no person connected with the Academy shall make any statement relative to the qualifications, standing, or character of any Cadet, or of any person who may have been a Cadet, or concerning the examination of any candidate for admission, unless authorized by the Secretary of the Navy, or by the Superintendent.

11. No person connected with the Academy shall cause publications, or correspond with official persons, in regard to transactions at the Academy, in a manner not authorized by the regulations for the government of the Navy.

12. No person connected with the Academy shall take or receive any present, or gratuity, directly or indirectly, from Cadets, or candidates for admission, or from their relatives or friends, without the approval of the Superintendent, nor shall any such person receive any compensation for tuition of Cadets, or candidates, or persons wishing to become candidates.

13. It shall be the duty of all officers, naval and civil, at the Academy, who have knowledge of any violation of a regulation, or of any neglect, or improper conduct of which a Cadet has been guilty, to report the fact to the Commandant of Cadets. Cases of negligence or impropriety on the part of any other person connected with the Academy may be reported by the person observing them to the proper officer.

14. Leave of absence may be granted by the Superintendent to any officers, naval and civil, attached to the Academy, from the
