To my dear father,

DOCTOR JAMES ANDERSON,

who was so fond of kindred, and loved them so well, who, while in life, kept in touch with them, and was so much interested in the Genealogical History of his Antecedents and their Descendants, this volume is most respectfully and affectionately dedicated. I have ever cherished the memory of my sainted father and mother along the checkered scenes of life, and now in old age, the memory of them is a solace and comfort to me.

GRANT JAMES ANDERSON.
