A GARDEN OF THE NEW SOUTH WHERE EVERY PROSPECT PLEASES

Turf in the foreground, Ivy to cover the masonry, conifers for accent and Boxwood to frame the beds filled, in this case, with Darwin Tulips, but sometimes with Pansies or Violas, and always lovely. All help make this garden of different levels one of rare charm.

*"And the Spring arose on the garden fair,
Like the spirit of Love fell everywhere;
And each flower and herb on earth's dark breast
Rose from the dreams of its wintry rest."*
