When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple, an honourable counsellor who waited for the Kingdom of God. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. — MATTHEW xvii. 57, 58 ; MARK xv. 43 ; LUKE xxiii. 50, 51.

INTRODUCTION

WHY do you think I wrote this book? For money? No. For my health? No. For pleasure? No. For praise? No,—because if you gave it me I could not keep it; for when, seventeen years ago, I gave my heart to God, He waited to see if I were sincere, it seemed to me; then He told me He wanted me to work for Him. I told God I would, and that I should give to Him all praise and glory for whatever I might do.

But He pays me a commission,—peace in the soul. Ah! I am well paid.

It was written with the hope that it would awaken holy aspirations and strengthen determinations to live for Heaven.
