ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE American Lectures on the History of Religions are delivered under the auspices of the American Committee for Lectures on the History of Religions. This Committee was organised in 1892 for the purpose of instituting "popular courses in the History of Religions, somewhat after the style of the Hibbert lectures in England, to be delivered annually by the best scholars of Europe and this country, in various cities, such as Baltimore, Boston, Brooklyn, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, and others."

The terms of association under which the Committee exists are as follows:

- 1.—The object of this Association shall be to provide courses of lectures on the history of religions, to be delivered in various cities.
- 2.—The Association shall be composed of delegates from Institutions agreeing to co-operate, or from Local Boards organised where such co-operation is not possible.
- 3.—These delegates—one from each Institution or Local Board—shall constitute themselves a Council under the name of the "American Committee for Lectures on the History of Religions."

- 4.—The Council shall elect out of its number a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.
- 5.—All matters of local detail shall be left to the Institutions or Local Boards, under whose auspices the lectures are to be delivered.
- 6.—A course of lectures on some religion, or phase of religion, from an historical point of view, or on a subject germane to the study of religions, shall be delivered annually, or at such intervals as may be found practicable, in the different cities represented by this Association.
- 7.—The Council (a) shall be charged with the selection of the lecturers, (b) shall have charge of the funds, (c) shall assign the time for the lectures in each city, and perform such other functions as may be necessary.
- 8.—Polemical subjects, as well as polemics in the treatment of subjects, shall be positively excluded.
- 9.—The lecturer shall be chosen by the Council at least ten months before the date fixed for the course of lectures.
- 10.—The lectures shall be delivered in the various cities between the months of October and June.

- 11.—The copyright of the lectures shall be the property of the Association.
- 12.—One half of the lecturer's compensation shall be paid at the completion of the entire course, and the second half upon the publication of the lectures.
- 13.—The compensation to the lecturer shall be fixed in each case by the Council.
- 14.—The lecturer is not to deliver elsewhere any of the lectures for which he is engaged by the Committee, except with the sanction of the Committee.

The Committee as now constituted is as follows :

Francis Brown (Union Theological Seminary).

Richard J. H. Gottheil (Columbia University).

W. R. Harper (University of Chicago).

Paul Haupt (Johns Hopkins University).

Franklin W. Hooper (Brooklyn Institute).

Morris Jastrow (University of Pa.), Secretary.

George F. Moore (Harvard University).

John P. Peters (New York), Treasurer.

F. K. Sanders (Yale University).

F. C. Southworth (Meadville Theological Seminary).

C. H. Toy (Harvard University), Chairman.

The lecturers in the course of American Lectures on the History of Religions and the titles of their volumes are as follows :

1894-1895—Prof. T. W. Rhys-Davids, Ph.D.,—Buddhism.

1896-1897—Prof. Daniel G. Brinton, M.D., LL.D.,—Religion of Primitive Peoples.

1897-1898—Rev. Prof. T. K. Cheyne, D.D.,—Jewish Religious Life after the Exile.

1898-1899—Prof. Karl Budde, D.D.,—Religion of Israel to the Exile.

The fifth course of lectures, contained in the present volume, was delivered in the spring of 1904 by Prof. Georg Steindorff, Ph.D., Professor of Egyptology in the University of Leipzig, on the Religion of Egypt. Prof. Steindorff enjoys a high reputation as a scholar and has had, in addition, the advantage of practical experience in investigations and explorations in Egypt. Among his larger and better known works are his Koptische Grammatik, Die Blütezeit des Pharaoneureichs, and Durch die Libysche Wüste zur Amonsoase. Perhaps the work which makes him best known to people at large is his guide-book to Egypt in the Baedeker series. He is also editor of the series Urkunden des ägyptischen Altertums, and, together with Prof. Erman of Berlin, conducts the Zeitschrift für ägyptische Sprache und Altertumskunde.

The lectures in this course were delivered before the Lowell Institute, Boston; Yale University, New Haven; Union Theological Seminary, New York; Brooklyn Institute, New York; University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Theological Seminary, Meadville, Pa.; University of Chicago, and, by special arrangement, three lectures of the course were also delivered before the University of California.
