1844.

The Pipe Rolls which have now been printed all belong to the period before the reign of King Henry the Third. For much of that period they are almost the only records we possess, and thus contain innumerable notices of persons, places, and transactions of which there is no other memorial whatever. The earlier of them place us amidst the persons who lived before the time of legal memory. If we desire to know what names were great in England in the reign of Henry the Second, we must peruse with attention the Pipe Rolls of that reign.

There are in all, Four printed Volumes of these Rolls; one for each of the early reigns; viz.

Anno 31 Henrici I., A.D. 1130-1131.

Annis 2, 3, 4 Henrici II., A.D. 1155, 1156, 1157,
1158.

Anno 1 Ricardi I., A.D. 1189-1190.

Anno 3 Johannis, A.D. 1201-1202.

The last of these was printed from the Chancellor's Duplicate.

JOSEPH HUNTER.

17th September 1844.
