PREFACE

BY THE

GENERAL EDITOR FOR THE OLD TESTAMENT

THE present General Editor for the Old Testament in the Cambridge Bible for Schools and Colleges desires to say that, in accordance with the policy of his predecessor the Bishop of Worcester, he does not hold himself responsible for the particular interpretations adopted or for the opinions expressed by the editors of the several Books, nor has he endeavoured to bring them into agreement with one another. It is inevitable that there should be differences of opinion in regard to many questions of criticism and interpretation, and it seems best that these differences should find free expression in different volumes. He has endeavoured to secure, as far as possible, that the general scope and character of the series should be observed, and that views which have a reasonable claim to consideration should not be ignored, but he has felt it best that the final responsibility should, in general, rest with the individual contributors.

A. F. KIRKPATRICK.

CAMBRIDGE.

PREFACE

AT the time of Mr Chapman's regretted death in December, 1913, the notes on chapters i—iv and §§ 1, 2 and 3, to the end of Division III, of the Introduction, were in print. The notes to the end of ch. xvi were found to be in a fairly complete form in MS.

Dr Streane kindly undertook at once to complete the work and be responsible for its final revision.

Thus §§ 1, 2, 3, I—III of the Introduction, a portion of § 4 of the same, the notes on chapters i—xvi and the introductory note on ch. xvii, together with Appendix I (a) (b) (c) (d) and Appendices II, IV, V are substantially Mr Chapman's work, although it has been carefully revised throughout by Dr Streane. For the remainder of the Introduction and Appendices and the notes on chapters xvii—xxvii, Dr Streane is directly responsible. Little available material for this part of the work was found among Mr Chapman's papers.

A. F. KIRKPATRICK.

July 1914.
