PREFATORY NOTE

This little hand book is put forth with a single and definite purpose.

When Jesus was about to leave his disciples he told them that the Comforter, the Holy Spirit whom the Father would send in his name, would teach them all things and bring to their remembrance all that he himself had said to them.

This is the need of the Christian—to have the Holy Spirit bring to his mind at the right moment the words of Christ.

But how if the Christian be not familiar with these words? The lack—the weakness—of so many Christians to-day is that, never having learned them, these words are not “in mind” to be “brought to remembrance.”

The mission of this little book is to present the final word that has been, or can, be, spoken on the pressing questions of life in such shape that it may be easily carried and daily studied.

With this purpose it is sent forth.

May the Lord grant that its mission be fulfilled.
