THE CZAR'S GIFT

Two brothers, Paul and Frederick Welonski, had lived alone in an obscure quarter of St. Petersburg since their father, a Polish wood-carver, had gone on his long journey to Siberia. Their home was an old stone house, hidden from the street by massive iron gates that shut out intruders at night, and screened from view those who dwelt within the precincts of the inclosure.

Little Paul was eight years old. His father had left him on his fourth birthday. He remembered the four candles set in a large white cake, made for him
