JUBILEE OF THE LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Just published, handsomely bound in cloth, price 10s. 6d. Vol. I., to be completed in two volumes,

THE HISTORY OF THE LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY;

Comprising an Account of the Origin of the Society, Biographical Notices of some of its Founders and Missionaries; with a Record of its Progress at Home and its Operations Abroad. Compiled from original documents in the possession of the Society. By W. ELLIS, Author of Polynesian Researches, and late Foreign Secretary of the Society.

"It is one of the most charming compositions of the kind we have ever met with. Pleasing in style, ample in details without being in the least tedious, it leaves nothing to wish for. We regret to be obliged to dwell so briefly on the performance, which is one of high literary merit."—

Foreign Quarterly Review.

"The tale which is here told has no parallel in modern times. There is here no small talk—from beginning to end the historic march steadily advances, and of that march every step is the step of a man, of a Christian man, and an Englishman. The volume will, we doubt not, be hailed with joy by thousands. The volume is exceedingly cheap."—

Christian Witness.

"The History, so far as it goes, is all that could be desired; clear, comprehensive, circumstantial without unnecessary minuteness, and catholic in its reference to kindred institutions. We cannot doubt that the 'History' will have a very large circulation. Other works may be valuable acquisitions to the missionary library—this, we should say, is indispensable."—Watchman.
