FIFTH THOUSAND.

COMPILED, WITH AN INTRODUCTORY LETTER, BY SIR HENRY LUNN, M.D.

"It is a book which churchmen may well use with profit, and if it reflected the general feeling of Methodists, then the day of reunion would not be far off."—Church Times.

"The book is full of wise counsel from one who is a Christian minister, a physician, and a man of business experience. A very large public within and outside the circle of Methodism will be grateful to Sir Henry Lunn for this guide to the spiritual life."—British Weekly.

"The whole book is a pleasant surprise to us, and we wish it a hearty God-speed among the 'people called Methodists.'"—Catholic Times.

"Whilst his appeal is especially to Methodists, many beyond the borders of Methodism will be ready to welcome this serviceable little devotional book."—Christian World.

"The appearance of this book is likely to be an event to remember in the lives of many of those to whom it is addressed."—Daily News.
