New York, Thursday, 25th - 1755

Dear Sir

After five Days we have got home, where found the Board of Trade had sent up to the King Resolved to purchase a number of Blanket three thousand, and in the meantime have ordered for the purchase of 2000 for the use of the forty five thousand pounds which is to be paid is left in the Treasury for other Services. We have no ready at hand of the Treasury arrival in Virginia there is a report that some of the other ships arrived as for raising Men or Companies as was talked of I find nothing at present. If there was any I would not be backward in doing what I promised

Wm. G. G.

the Assembly have a meeting and will of the 2nd in the month respective of the same in the Bill 9th. we let the House and that to prevent provisions being sent to the House in a Charter on the 1st of the month the 2d is the 1st of the month very truly
