HODDER AND STOUGHTON
LONDON MCMX

PREFACE

THE author owes to the reader some words of explanation, how this book has come to its present form.

It was in 1908 that he was asked to read a paper before the Third International Congress for the History of Religions, held at Oxford, September, 1908. He laid several subjects to be treated upon before the Committee, and the Committee decided in favour of "The Significance of Early Christian Eschatology." This paper was printed in the Transactions of the Congress, vol. ii., pp. 312-320, and is here reprinted as an Introduction by kind permission of the Clarendon Press.

The four lectures which follow appeared in the Expositor, February–May, 1910, and are an expansion of what he had given only in outlines. They were delivered at the summer school of theology at Oxford in 1909.
