EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THIS book was written at the request of the eminent divine to whom it is dedicated. Others, of high standing and scholarship, to whom the manuscript was read, in whole or in part, have approved the work heartily, and desire its publication. Therefore it is sent forth. It is the result of an earnest, prayerful, far-reaching study of the subject, extending through many years. Not only has the Word of God been faithfully studied, but every book and article, whether "Baptist" or "Pedobaptist," which came within reach, has been carefully read. Many things said by others may be found here, but also many things new. The work is commended to the public as written in subjection to the following
