"There is not a superfluous sentence in the book."—The Christian Instructor.

"The style is clear and simple, so that the meaning is always plain, without any mystification."—Christian Guardian.

"It puts in few words the best results of careful scholarship."—The United Presbyterian.

"The results, rather than the processes of scholarship are given in the text. The record, unburdened with Greek and Hebrew, reads smoothly, and will not fail to be enjoyed by the thoughtful student."—Zion's Herald.

"This is a most valuable book for any one who wishes a safe, scholarly, conservative statement as to the age, authorship, general circumstances, meaning and connection of each of the books of the Old Testament."—Herald and Presbyterian.

PREFACE

These Outline Studies in the Acts and four of the Epistles are intended to serve as helps in the reading of this section of God's Word. They are not critical, although criticism occasionally is found in them because indispensable to the understanding of certain passages. Nor are these Studies strictly expository, although they are based on what is believed to be the essential meaning of each Book here dealt with. The chief aim has been to point out as clearly and briefly as possible what is conceived to be the design and the fundamental truth of these great Scriptures. Should they serve in any degree to open the Word to the reader and deepen in him the conviction that in these Books God Himself speaks to us, none will so rejoice as the writer.

In the preparation of the Studies many volumes have been consulted. References to them in the text are scanty, chiefly because it seemed undesirable to burden the pages with them. Here, however, it is proper to mention those which have been of special aid, viz., Bernard's Progress of Doctrine in the New Testament; Stifler's Introduction to the Acts, and Commentary on the Romans; Smith's and Hastings' Dictionaries of the Bible; the Commentaries of Meyer, Godet, Moule, Riddle, Hodge, Alexander, Graham, Findlay, etc.
