PEOPLE AND PLACES HERE AND THERE.

AUSTRALASIA.

SYDNEY AND NEWCASTLE.

If you and I were really traveling by rail and by steam, we should need, unless we were millionaires, to be a little more direct in our routes. But as it is, it doesn't much matter; and so we may as well zig-zag down to that great island of Australia, thence to the Fijis, thence to the Sandwich Isles, taking in on our way a flying visit to New Zealand.

And now, as we cross the equator—first of all, let us turn our attention towards the skies and the stars. These, no matter where you have ever
