In the following Selection the Authorised Version of Psalms has been generally followed; discretion having been only exercised in the choice of the particular verses to be sung. Some of the more recent versions, by Watts and others, have been retained under the head of Paraphrases, to which class they more strictly belong. The Hymns, it is hoped, will be found in accordance with the devotional character of the Church of England.

The Tunes have been adopted from a Collection lately published by Mr. Hawes, of His Majesty's Chapel Royal, and sold by him at 353, Strand.

January, 1837.
