FOREWORD AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE problem of religious education in all its phases has been given wider consideration during the last quarter of a century than in all the rest of the reformation period combined. There is hardly a type of work in the realm of Christian education upon which one or more books have not been written.

The standards recently adopted by the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations for work with young people in the local church call forth another which the author hopes may be at least suggestive to churches desiring to unify the leadership and correlate the program of Christian education for the youth of the church.

In the preparation of this manual for teachers of Intermediate, Senior and Young People's classes the author gratefully acknowledges her indebtedness to the works of Professors Coe, Starbuck, Athearn, Weigle, King and Butler; to Dr. Ward C. Crampton and Margaret Slattery; to Messrs, Hartshorne, Alexander and Foster; to the published questionnaire and replies presented by Dr. Wade Crawford Barclay to the members of the Sunday School Council; and to the "Canadian Standard of Efficiency Tests for Boys," "Canadian Girls in Training," and the "American Standard Program for Boys."

Besides such acknowledgments as are made in the text, the author wishes to express her thanks to the members of the Young People's Work Committee of the Sunday School Council; to the Secondary Division Council of the Bible School Department of the American Christian Missionary Society; and to a host of friends and teachers of young people the continent over, whose conference and co-operation has made possible this book. To all who have helped in any way, the author is deeply grateful.
