PREFATORY NOTICE.

THE following accounts were written at the request of the late HONBLE. EDWARD PETRE, who had collected some materials and made various notes for the purpose. He had felt a lively interest in the remains of our Religious Establishments on the Continent, and was anxious to preserve what information could be collected respecting them. He had also considered that the particulars of their history had never been presented to the public in a collected form, nor indeed in some instances ever printed. This little work was completed before the death of its lamented originator, and had met his entire approval. It is now therefore given to the public, in full confidence that to the English Catholic especially, its details, however slight and imperfect, will not fail to prove precious and attractive.

F. C. HUSENBETH.
