The need of a concise and well-written Series of Books on the chief doctrines of Christianity is generally recognized. Hence it is intended to issue, at convenient intervals, a series of small books on the doctrines which recent debate has brought prominently before the public mind. These volumes will be condensed in expression, biblical in doctrine, catholic in spirit, and by competent writers. The following is a list of the volumes, price 3s. 6d. each.

SUBJECTS.	AUTHORS.
DOES SCIENCE AID FAITH IN REGARD TO CREATION?	Rt. Rev. Henry Cotterill, D.D. Bishop of Edinburgh.
LIFE: IS IT WORTH LIVING?	Rev. J. Marshall Lang, D.D.
ARE MIRACLES CREDIBLE?	Rev. J. J. Lias, M.A.
IS GOD KNOWABLE?	Rev. J. Iverach, M.A.
IS DOGMA A NECESSITY?	Rev. Prebendary Meyrick, M.A.
WHAT IS REGENERATION?	Rev. Principal Angus, D.D.
IS CHRIST DIVINE?	Rev. T. Whitelaw, M.A.
DOES GOD ANSWER PRAYER?	Rev. R. McCheyne Edgar, M.A.
WHAT IS SAVING FAITH?	Rev. Prof. J. J. Given, M.A., D.D.
WHAT IS THE SCRIPTURE DOCUMENT OF THE BODY?	Rev. Henry George Tomkins.

TO THE
REV. HENRY WALLACE,

PROFESSOR OF CHRISTIAN ETHICS IN THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, BIRKSTAD,
AUTHOR OF "REPRESENTATIVE RESPONSIBILITY, A LAW OF THE DIVINE PROCEDURE IN PROVIDENCE AND REDEMPTION," ETC.

DEAR PROFESSOR WALLACE,—

I deem it a great privilege to be allowed to associate your name with this little book. By all who know you well, you are regarded as the greatest living master of the art of analogical reasoning. Butler's method is not deemed by you, as it is by some less thorough thinkers, an anachronism in our present stage of progress; on the contrary, you believe it capable of most profitable extension, and still the great philosophical defence of the Christian faith. It is the analogical argument which is employed in the present essay. You have been good enough to read over the proofs and to express your approval of the general course of argument they contain. You say most truly that "verification is the great difficulty" and, in venturing to handle this part of the subject, I have not been unmindful of the circumstance that the outstanding facts, which I maintain fairly imply the efficacy of prayer, have received explanations excluding the idea of its efficacy altogether. All we can do in such circumstances is to abide by the more reasonable explanation. But as everything depends on the moral attitude we take up in the inquiry, I would respectfully solicit attention to the "Epilogue" before judgment is passed upon the "Verification."

You have expressed yourself very cordially about the value of Note H, in the Appendix, in which the proposed Hospital Test is treated more fully than was possible when drafting the text. It was written in 1872, when the proposal was made, but has lain among my papers until now. I am grateful for your verdict on it, and hope it may secure attention to it, though it has been relegated to the Appendix.

It only remains for me to tender to you in this public manner the gratitude I feel for the encouragement and sympathy you have extended to me for a long series of years.

I remain, dear Professor Wallace,

Yours most faithfully,

R. McCHEYNE EDGAR.
